

Circle the correct answer.

1. Sally isn't employed but she has some part-time _____.
a) work b) job c) employment
2. Most people must expect to have many different _____, some at the same time.
a) workers b) employees c) employers
3. His academic _____ are good, but he doesn't have any previous _____.
a) qualifications / salary b) experience / qualifications c) qualifications / experience
4. I run the design department and I _____ a team of 20 designers.
a) manage b) operate c) work
5. You have to be careful when _____ business with people from other countries.
a) making b) doing c) operating
6. - What do you do?
- I work _____ a large chocolate company.
a) under b) on c) for
7. Officially she works thirty- five hours a week, but sometimes with _____ as many as fifty.
a) part-time job b) overtime c) salary
8. In some cases, small companies can depend _____ transnational company.
a) on b) by c) with
9. The British wait in lines patiently and they sometimes _____ with each other while waiting.
a) chat b) grumble c) tip
10. The British take _____ very seriously. Never jump in line or show impatience.
a) custom b) foreigners c) queues
11. She loves what she does and is glad to be in work, because some of her friends are not so lucky; they are _____ work.
a) out of b) for c) at
12. Employers are interested in practical _____ like word-processing and fluency in languages.
a) jobs b) skills c) qualifications
13. The entire global industry can be dominated _____ a small number of companies.
a) by b) on c) at
14. She has been _____ ever since she finished her studies; she just can't find a job.
a) unemployed b) unemployment c) unemployable