

TWO LETTERS – GRAMMAR PRACTICE

Dear Michael,

I _____ (just, arrive) to the beautiful French capital, Paris. My first impressions _____ (be) great! Everything _____ (be) so big and shiny.

I _____ (walk) from the airport to the hotel last night and I _____ (see) some nice places that I would like to visit tomorrow morning. People _____ (say) that you _____ (can, not) see Paris in seven days, but I will give my best to see as much as possible.

I _____ (not, buy) any souvenirs at the airport last night, because they _____ (be) very expensive. I will have enough time to buy some on my way back.

Right now, I _____ (think) of where to go tonight. Last night I _____ (think) that the best thing would be to see the center of Paris, but now I _____ (not, think) that it's a good idea. I _____ (not, have) any traveler's guide with me, but I hope I _____ (find) one tomorrow and look for some must-see things in it.

See you soon,

Love - Robin

Dear Donna,

Thanks for your letter. I (be) _____ really busy recently studying for my exams. The materials the teachers (give) _____ us last semester is so difficult to cover! But I hope I (manage) _____ somehow!

Well, my dear friend, there (not, be) _____ much new to tell! I (just manage) _____ to persuade my parents to let me spend a year in England learning the language. It (be) _____ such wonderful news for me! I (apply) _____ for the courses in several cities but I (not, know) _____ exactly where I (go) _____ this summer.

I must admit that now I (start) _____ to get a bit worried. Now that it (be) _____ definite that I (come) _____ to England I've started to wonder how I (adapt) _____ to living there. How easy (you think) _____ it is for someone from Serbia to get used to living in your country? What kind of problems (you believe) _____ I might have? I'd really appreciate your advice.

Anyway, I have to finish now because my little brother (wait) _____ for me to pick him up from school. I hope your family (be) _____ safe and sound.

Give my regards to your parents.

Write soon!
